Welcome to Evebowl, here it is our goal to maximize your eve-online experience through education and entertainment. We offer facets for every player of eve. We are working on having guides covering all aspects of eve, we run a corp/alliance, and a public forum board. On our forums we offer many free raffles, lotteries, events, contests, and more.

Guides:

Missioning - Running missions for npc corporations to make isk and earn LP. This is a very big aspect of eve and how many make their living.

Ratting - We will teach you how to make isk killing npc's (known as pirates in eve). These npc's can be found in hgihsec/lowsec/0.0 and a great source for income.

PVP - The largest aspect of the game, and its "endgame". We will teach you how to defend yourself against pvp attack and how to kill your targets when your on the delivering side.

Mining - Earn your isk sitting back relaxing as you harvest ore from the many asteroid belts in the universe.

Production - We do it all PI, Ship, Mod, POS, Booster, we will teach you how to make isk being a industry master.

Exploration - New Eden is a large universe and we will teach you how to explore its nooks and crannies and how to make a living doing it.

Raffles/Lotteries - We offer many free raffles and occasional lotteries for everyone to participate in.
